

LOOKOUTS OVER TO CHATTANOOGA; TAKE ON LOOKOUTS

Tribe Knocked Out of First Place by Losing to Volunteers, But Confident of Getting Back on Top.

BY BOB PIGUE.

The Chicks moved out of Nashville Wednesday night, and headed for Chattanooga, where they will make their bow to Chattanooga fans. The Tribe is billed for three shows at Andrews' field, finishing up Saturday night and returning to Memphis bringing the Lookouts with them for a Sunday session at Russellwood.

Manager John J. McCloskey, of the Chicks, is planning to shift his batting order, now that Dixie Carroll has reported. Carroll will be used in lead-off position until Yale Sloan returns to the game, according to advices received from Chattanooga early Thursday.

TRIBE LOSES LEAD.

The Chicks were given a solar plexus wallop in Nashville Wednesday, and the blow knocked them out of first place. The Tribe, who were leading the league, were defeated by the Volunteers, who were the only team to win a game in the league last night.

The fact that Dazzy is failing to come through is causing a few additional furrows in the already wrinkled brow of Manager McCloskey, as Dazzy had been counted on to deliver a winning brand of pitching for the Chicks. Vance has been nursing a sore pitching arm along ever since the St. Paul series when he pitched a no-hitter and the game against the Cardinals in St. Louis. He expects himself too much and is now paying for his folly.

Pat Albris and Bill Thewatt brought up the rear in the Nashville game Wednesday, but the boys had already been seen as the Tribe's last hope. The Tribe were unable to get a run in the game, and the Volunteers were able to win the game by a score of 10 to 0.

Pug Griffin fanned three times, and other Chicks did their share of the whiffing. Harry Coltenberger, Chick shortstop, did his share of the whiffing, being hit two out of five and hitting the ball every time up.

LOOKOUTS WEAK.

The Chicks should have easy picking in Chattanooga if they perform as well as they did in Nashville. The Lookouts have yet to show anything resembling class and the indications are that they are one of the weakest teams in the league. Capt. Strang Nicklin, who is managing and presiding over the club, has been unable to get the men he needs to find out his machine.

Red Gruff and third baseman of the Lookouts, refused to report this season, and Nicklin has been unable to secure a replacement. The Chicks tried to buy Gruff for the third corner job with Memphis, but Nicklin said they did not stand for such a deal, and that if Memphis got him the first thing he'd hear from Chattanooga was that Memphis couldn't get Gruff and that Memphis couldn't get the deal.

So that killed the proposed deal in the road. Manager McCloskey of the Tribe drops a line to state that his eye is steadily improving, and that he expects to soon be well, although taking the doctor's word for it that he will never see again out of the injured eye.

CANAVAN IS DUE.

Hugh Canavan, Chick left-hander, is due to open the series in Chattanooga Thursday afternoon. Haglin, hasn't worked since the Sunday game with the Little Rock Travelers, when he was treated in great disorder in 10 minutes when Bill Miller hit a home run with Chief Wano on the bases, tying the score after the game had all but been won.

Canavan batted in the ninth Wednesday in Nashville, but couldn't produce. George Blischoff has returned to the lineup after resting a couple of days getting over a right ailment.

SAFETY FIRST.

President Thomas H. Watkins of the Chicks went to Chattanooga to see that the trip was safe. He was accompanied by Dixie Carroll, who made the journey safely.

In these days of industrial leagues which pay the same for ball players, there are no chances taken. A lot of the hand is with a whole new team, where else, which will be the first to start alone to see that Dixie Carroll in Chattanooga is safe.

An example of this occurred when the Chicks returned to Memphis. Dixie Carroll was in the lineup, and the St. Louis Cardinals, who were the only team to win a game in the league last night, were able to win the game by a score of 10 to 0.

A baby elephant. Babe Ruth is having the time of his life getting started with the Yankees, and has found the road unsmooth, hard and rough, but he is not giving up. He has been unable to hit the ball with the accustomed vigor but his hitting has been poor.

The Babe cost the Yankees approximately $100,000, which includes salary, bonus, etc., but up to the present has been worth about $50.

Mobile fans should be justly proud of the distinction won on opening day when they flocked to the park in such droves as to win the attendance cup for the second division, offered to President John D. Martin, of the Southern league.

Baseball has come back strong in Mobile and one of the league's alleged weak links appears as strong as any of them at present.

The Chicks will return to Memphis Sunday and open a home stay of several days. They meet Chattanooga Sunday, then Nashville comes Monday for a three-day stay, then Chattanooga returns for three games.

Queer schedule making.

WOLFE A REAL HEADLINER MEETS PAL MOORE HERE

KID WOLFE.

It has been a long time since two boxing headliners such as Pal Moore, of Memphis, and Kid Wolfe, of Cleveland, have appeared at the Southern A. C. Moore and Wolfe are billed to travel eight rounds to a decision Monday night at the Winchester avenue arena, and there is every indication that the biggest house on record will watch the two premier bantamweights for the referee's verdict. Friday. Both boys will wind up their training at the Southern A. C. Saturday and Sunday. Seats are going fast and at the present rate the supply is not going to be sufficient to take care of the throng that will want to see the bout. Good preliminaries are being arranged.

RING'S WILDNESS IS UNDOING OF THE REDS

CINCINNATI, April 22.—Ring's wildness in the first inning enabled Pittsburgh to secure a lead of four runs, which the Reds could not overcome, and the visitors won their second straight game from the champions, 5 to 2. The Reds outlasted the Pirates but Cooper was effective with runners on the bases, and prevented any rallies.

The Chicks will return to Memphis Sunday and open a home stay of several days. They meet Chattanooga Sunday, then Nashville comes Monday for a three-day stay, then Chattanooga returns for three games.

Chicks Spend Day Fanning the Breezes

Bubber Jonnard in Rare Form and Tribe Is Beaten by Score of 6 to 0—Collenberger's Work With Mace and in the Field a Feature.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 22.—Harry Coltenberger, Chick shortstop, was the lone regular of the Chicks who failed to fall a victim to Bubber Jonnard's string of strike-outs Wednesday afternoon, when the local boxman equaled his 1919 whiff mark. Instead the rangy shortstop, whose defensive play in the series here has been excellent, bagged two of the five lean hits made off Jonnard. Pug Griffin fanned three times, and Jack Lewis twice. One strike-out was charged against every other regular.

LEWIS' GREAT STOP.

Lewis delayed the Vol's scoring with a marvelous one-handed stab off Ballinger in the first round. After Greene had dropped a Texas leaguer behind short, with one out, Ballinger drove a terrific shot toward right center. Lewis jumped three feet in the air and came down with the ball in his gloved hand. Greene was easily doubled, Jack fielded in faultless style, handling eight chances with ease. Nashville's first run was scored on Kohlberger's single, which followed Vance hitting Wickham and a passed ball. They got one in the third on Jonnard's single. Ellum's sacrifice and singles by Ballinger and Wickham. In the fifth Dazzy was driven out. After Bubber Jonnard fanned, Roy Ellum drove a long double to left. Then Greene fanned. Ballinger bounced a single off Dazzy's glove, and Wickham smashed a long single to right. The last run came on Barol's single a sacrifice and Greene's single.

CHICKS WALK PLANK.

The Chicks were forced to walk the plank not only on the ball lot, but on their bench. Long planks were laid on these deep pools of water standing in the awag between home plate and their bench. Through long ditch, the water which leaked in front of the sewers trickled merrily around the players. The Vols were driven from their bench to improvised seats in front. News that Dixie Carroll would soon return to the club had the Chicks in high feather last night. They figure now they are headed for the flag if their pitchers will only come through.

WILDE BEATS MURRAY.

CAMPDEN, N. J., April 22.—Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion, so far outclassed Battling Murray, of Philadelphia, in their eight-round bout here last night. Battling Murray, John Smith, of the New Jersey boxing commission, stopped the contest in the last round.

PAL MOORE ARRIVES FOR MONDAY MILL.

Dressed up like a fire engine and bubbling over with pep, Pal Moore, Memphis bantamweight, who meets Kid Wolfe, of Cleveland, in eight rounds at the Southern A. C. Monday night, arrived in Memphis a few minutes after midnight Wednesday. Pal came directly from Providence, R. I., where he defeated Roy Moore, of Baltimore, in 12 rounds Monday night. Pal came to Memphis in response to a telegram from his homefolks to the effect that his brother, Glenn, was seriously ill. Moore hurried to his home after arriving in Memphis, and found his kinsman still very sick, but slightly improved.

SAYS HE WILL WIN.

Moore says he is confident of defeating Wolfe in their Monday meeting. "I'm not taking anything away from Wolfe, for I have fought him, and I should be familiar with his class, which I grant him. But I have defeated him before and I know he will be with the determination to defeat him again," says Pal. "When I found out the first time in Cleveland I was going strong, and figured I was leading in points, which broke Wolfe's heart. I could not continue with a broken arm, and the bout had to be stopped. Wolfe the last round have a fight, to prove that his victory was a fluke and all an account of my breaking my arm. I met him here in 1917 here in Memphis, and you remember the result of that fight. I was a come-hard-bout all the way, but I was awarded the decision, and there were no complaints."

There's no denying the fact that the present array of Chicks is the strongest in the past several years. Not in many seasons has the team looked so good. The Chicks have been playing well, and are expected to win the league. The fans are excited, and are looking forward to the season. The Chicks are a team to watch, and are expected to be a success.

LOU DILLON HAS FOALED FINE COLT

Famous Champion Trotting Mare Has Offspring That Promises Much.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 22.—Harnessed horse fans will be interested in the news that Lou Dillon, world's champion trotting mare, recently foaled a fine colt, which experts say has all the requisites to the development of as famed a racer as his dam. Lou Dillon is owned by C. K. G. Billings, of New York and Montecito, Cal. The famous mare was taken from the Castleton farm, near Lexington, Ky., last fall to Montecito, and is now with the colt on the Billings California estate.

Lou Dillon has a track record of 1:58.4, made on the course at Memphis, Tenn., in October, 1903. In June of that year, she won the Kentucky Derby, and in the International, beating O. C. to beat the 210 trotting world record, and lowered the time to 2:06.4. Through the summer of that year at Cincinnati she gave evidence of the terrific speed she was to develop on the Memphis track. In all her public performances in this country and abroad she never once finished the mile as slow as 2:10. Though 21 years old, she still is a marvelous trotter.

The colt is sired by Elvash, who holds a track record of 2:03. On Elvash's side the colt is directly related to the great gelding, Elvash, who was a champion trotter, whose time was 1:58.4, made on the course at Lexington, Ky., in 1903. The colt is owned by Billings, who took both horses from the professional track when he bought them in 1903. He has since been a successful breeder, and has produced many champions.

Dixie Carroll batted .293 in the Southern last season. Pug Griffin was around the .300 mark in 1922.

Yale Sloan batted .306 when in the league a few years back. George Blischoff is a capable hitter. It is up to the pitchers. The Chicks are going to have a good year and the only thing that can keep them out of the first four will be an earthquake.

The 1920 Chicks is the costliest club that Memphis has ever had. It's all very well to talk through your front teeth about the Chicks, but never spend any money for players, but one glance over the books shows that the Chicks have been losing money since they were started. They have had a half-dozen championship clubs.

The club has spent the money all over the place. They have bought players at peach prices who turned out to be lemons. Memphis is still trying to get Jimmy Browne, young right-hander with 30 victories, but he has been injured, and needs pitchers' hands, and is retaining Browne until he can care for his own needs.

When George Egan, French lightweight, arrives in this country he will be matched to meet Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world. Manager Egan says Leonard is a day-compete who handles both Egan and George Carpenter. It is both a bet of Egan that Leonard will not knock out, or even knock Egan off his feet.

Benny is promising his right sleeper for the bout and is already counting the one thousand men as having been won.

Southern league umpires are keeping their eyes peeled on alleged violators of the spitball edict. As yet no guilty ones have been caught, although it is alleged that one or two of them have tried it. It is a noticeable fact that the umpires are watching the balls carefully from time to time when what appears to be a spitter comes to the plate.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 22.—Little Rock bantamweight, Bill York had yesterday and won the final game of the series in a runaway, the score being 7 to 2. Libman was touched for 12 hits, but was victorious with men on bases.

FULTON STOPS NEGRO. FULTON, Okla., April 22.—Fred Fulton, Memphis heavyweight boxer, received the decision here tonight in the sixth round of his scheduled ten-round bout against Jack Thompson, Tulsa, Okla., negro, after the latter had fallen twice to the canvas.

Joe Thorburn Holds Pelicans Scoreless; Wins

ATLANTA, April 22.—Atlanta and New Orleans fought out a 10-inning pitchers' battle here yesterday, that the Crackers won in the tenth, 1 to 0, by finally bunching hits on the Pelicans' twirler. Today's was the second game of the season for Joe Thorburn, and with his previous no-hit, no-run game, it gave him 19 innings of pitching without a score being against him. Phillips, although allowing nine hits to Thorburn's five, kept them scattered until the last inning. Then singles by King, Higgins and Grall, the last coming after Thorburn had walked, put the single necessary run across the plate.

Barons Protest Game Which Bears Won By 5-0 Score

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 22.—Pitcher Ching twirled a splendid game for Mobile today, and the Barons were victorious over Birmingham, 5 to 0. The Bruin hurler allowed but three hits. The Bears hit often and timely, and combining speedy base running with rather slow defensive work of the locals, forced across the tallies.

Manager Carlton Menninger played the game under protest, following a decision given by Umpire Pfirman.
